

RASHTRIYA CHEMICALS & FERTILIZERS LIMITED

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

Research & Development Department at Rashtriya Chemicals and Fertilizers Limited shall continue to explore new avenues through innovative research and its application. We are committed to playing important role in accelerating the growth of the organization through:

- Development of new products and processes aligned with our core business.
- Value addition to existing products and processes of fertilizers and chemicals.
- Collaborative research with universities and external agencies in core areas.
- Applied in house research through assimilated knowledge and skill sets.
- Development of solution for farm growers to increase nutrient efficiency and crop yield.
- Supporting manufacturing team in trouble shooting, waste minimization, cost reduction, optimization, energy conservation, environment protection, transfer of technology from laboratory to production.
- Providing training, knowledge sharing and learning platform to the stakeholders.
- Continuous knowledge and skill set upgradation of R&D's personnel in the areas of upcoming technologies aligned with corporate goals.

The R&D team shall strive hard to achieve set objectives within stipulated timelines.

Date: 22nd May 2015

Chairman & Managing Director